Chapter 1. General provisions

§ 1.

1. The University of Gdańsk in Gdańsk, hereinafter referred to as “the University”, established under a Council of Ministers regulation of 20 March 1970 (Journal of Laws no. 6, item 49), is a public university.
2. The University has legal personality and its seat in the city of Gdańsk.
3. The University operates pursuant to:
 - 1) the Act of 20 July 2018 – Law on Higher Education and Science, hereinafter referred to as “the Act”;
 - 2) the Statute;
 - 3) University tradition.

1. The University’s employees, students and doctoral students shall constitute a self-governing academic community.
2. The academic community shall participate in the management of the University through elected collective bodies and single-person authorities. The collective bodies shall represent the University’s entire academic community.

§ 3.

The University shall be autonomous in all areas of its activity pursuant to the rules laid down by the Act.

§ 4.

1. The University’s mission shall consist in providing education and pursuing scientific research of the highest quality, shaping civic attitudes and participating in social development and the creation of an innovation-based economy.
2. In its activity the University shall pursue the principles of freedom of speech and conscience, freedom of teaching, freedom of research and freedom of artistic creativity.
3. The University’s activity shall be based upon the conviction that justice, equality and responsibility for others are the fundamental values which underpin the Human Family. The University shall implement the principle of equal treatment and prevent the violation of this principle on the grounds of gender, race, ethnic origin, nationality, religion, faith, worldview, disability, age or sexual orientation. All forms of discrimination at the University shall be unacceptable.⁶⁾
4. The University shall cooperate with national and international academic, artistic or other institutions and entrepreneurs, as well as taking part in the shaping of European higher education.
5. The University shall adhere to the principles of “HR Excellence in Research”, as defined in the “European Charter for Researchers” and the “Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers”.
6. The University shall provide disabled persons with opportunities to participate in the life of the academic community, including employment, admissions to study or admissions to doctoral school, education and the conducting of scientific activity.

1. The University shall adhere to University traditions and sound academic practice.
2. Problems arising within the University's academic community shall be resolved by means of social dialogue.

1. The University's symbols are its emblem, standard and flag.
2. The University's emblem is the letters "U" and "G" combined with graphic elements which refer to the coat of arms of Gdańsk. The University's emblem, which is protected by law, is defined in Annex no. 1 to the Statute.⁶⁾
3. The University's standard and flag are defined in Annex no.1 to the Statute.
4. The rules for the use of the University's emblem, standard and flag are defined by the Rector.
5. The University's motto is "In mari via tua".
6. The official University Day is celebrated on 20 March.
7. The University's name may be abbreviated to "UG", written in capital letters.
8. The official English translation of the University's name is "The University of Gdańsk".
9. Individual University units may abbreviate their own names, followed by the abbreviation "UG" or the abbreviation of any other collaborating university with which a faculty, or another unit, is co-established.
10. In their graphic identification, University units shall use the University's emblem. Intercollegiate organisational units and those in conjunction with other entities may additionally use the emblem or logo of another university or entity in their graphic identification.⁶⁾

§ 7.

Lectures at the University shall be open, with the exception of extramural studies, postgraduate studies and other forms of education referred to in § 123 section 1 point 3.

§ 8.

1. The University shall maintain close ties with its graduates by means of University graduate organisations and clubs.⁶⁾
2. The University shall endeavour to preserve the legacy of its employees, graduates and students.

§ 9.

Following a motion by the Rector, the Senate shall appoint, for the duration of the Rector's term in office, an Honorary Titles Committee for assessing applications to award University of Gdańsk honorary titles.

§ 10.

The Honorary Titles Committee shall comprise the Rector as Chair, accompanied by four academic teachers holding the title of professor, representing various fields of science and eminent in the academic community.

§ 11.

The Senate may award the title of doctor honoris causa of the University of Gdańsk to individuals of exceptional merit to the development of science, culture and social life, as well as those of particular merit to the University.

§ 12.

1. The Rector, Chair of the University Council, Vice-Rector for Research, dean, chair of a scientific discipline council or five members of the Senate shall present an application to the Honorary Titles Committee to award the title of doctor honoris causa, accompanied by appropriate justification.
2. The Committee shall issue an opinion with regard to the conferment of the title of doctor honoris causa.
3. Should the Committee's opinion prove positive, the Rector shall forward the application accompanied by justification to the Senate, which shall establish a three-person committee to conduct the conferment procedure and appoint three reviewers, including at least two external reviewers, to prepare an assessment of the candidate.
4. Having acquainted itself with the committee's assessment, the Senate shall adopt a resolution on the conferment of the title of doctor honoris causa.
5. The resolutions of the Senate concerning the conferment of the title of doctor honoris causa shall be passed by secret ballot by a majority of 2/3 of votes with at least 2/3 of Senate members present.

Following a motion by the Rector, duly assessed by the Honorary Titles Committee, the Senate may name University organisational units, buildings or lecture halls in honour of persons of merit to the University and grant permission for commemorative plaques or statues to be placed on University grounds.

§ 14.

1. The Rector shall reward employees of exceptional merit and other persons who have contributed towards the development of the University or towards its good name or splendour by awarding them with the "Medal of the University of Gdańsk" in gold, silver or bronze. The medals are defined in Annex no. 1 to the Statute.
2. A motion to award the Medal of the University of Gdańsk in gold requires positive assessment by the Honorary Titles Committee.

1. An outstanding scientist who is a present or former employee of the University or another national or international university or research institute may be awarded the title of honorary professor of the University of Gdańsk for his or her academic achievements.⁶⁾
2. A motion to confer the title of honorary professor of the University of Gdańsk may be proposed by the Rector, vice-rector or dean. The Senate shall adopt a resolution regarding the conferment of the title of honorary professor of the University of Gdańsk following consultation with the Honorary Titles Committee.
3. The ceremony of the conferment of the title of honorary professor shall proceed in accordance with University tradition.

1. Fifty years after having been awarded the academic degree of doctor at the University of Gdańsk, a person who has distinguished himself/herself in their work for the University or the society may be honoured with a renewal of the doctorate.
2. The resolution on the renewal of the doctorate shall be taken by a faculty council.
3. The doctorate renewal ceremony may be celebrated at an individual faculty level or, on the basis of a Senate resolution, by the entire University.
4. The Senate shall take the resolution on the general-university nature of the ceremony following consultation with the Honorary Titles Committee.

§ 16.

Other means by which employees and other persons may be honoured may be specified by a resolution of the Senate or a decree of the Rector.

§ 17.

Sessions of University bodies and of the Honorary Titles Committee regarding the conferment of honorary titles shall be held in camera.

§ 18.

1. In order to respect tradition, the University shall develop sound academic practice.
2. Fixed and extraordinary academic celebrations shall constitute an expression of University tradition.
3. Academic celebrations and doctoral and habilitation conferments at the University shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and procedures defined by a resolution of the Senate.

Chapter 2. University bodies

§ 19.

- 3a. Voting on the conferment of academic degrees and degrees in the Arts shall be attended by members of a scientific council who are professors and associate professors.
- 4. A scientific discipline council shall also comprise the following – without the right to vote in matters related to the conferment of academic degrees and degrees in the Arts:

- 1) representatives of other academic teachers than those referred to in section 3, who hold an academic degree of doctor, are employed at the University as the primary workplace as research or research and didactic staff and who have submitted a declaration on representing a given scientific discipline with the participation of at least 0.75, who constitute no more than 10% of the composition of the council (a minimum of one person) and have been elected at a general assembly of this employee group,
 - 2) one representative of doctoral students, should there be a doctoral student studying at a doctoral school in this scientific discipline, elected under the rules set out in doctoral student council regulations.
5. The academic teachers referred to in section 3 and section 4 shall submit the declarations pertaining to meeting the requirements specified in Article 32 section 1 of the Act to the Rector.
 6. Should no appropriate scientific discipline council have been appointed at the University or should the number of members of a scientific discipline council fall below the minimum statutory number of six, the responsibilities of a scientific discipline council with regard to the conferment of academic degrees and degrees in the Arts shall be assumed by the Senate until such a council is appointed or until the council's composition is complemented.
 7. Membership of a scientific discipline council shall expire in the cases referred in Article 20 section 4 in conjunction with Article 32 section 1 of the Act and in the event of a representative of a given group of academic teachers or a representative of doctoral students ceasing to meet the requirements specified in § 29 sections 3 and 4 of the Statute. Expiry of membership of a scientific discipline council may be, if necessary, confirmed by the Rector.
 8. Until a chair of a scientific discipline council is appointed in accordance with the procedure in section 9, the Rector or a person authorised by the Rector from amongst the members of the council shall convene meetings of the scientific discipline council, determine their agenda and head the work of the scientific discipline council.
 9. The work of a scientific discipline council shall be overseen by a chair appointed by the Rector. A scientific discipline council shall designate a candidate for a chair from amongst its members. The chair may be dismissed by the Rector during his/her term in office, in consultation with the scientific discipline council or following a motion proposed by this council. The chair may be an academic teacher employed in the position of professor or associate professor, or holding the academic degree of doctor with habilitation.
 10. Following a motion by the chair of a scientific discipline council, the Rector may appoint one deputy chair from amongst members of the council. The deputy chair may be dismissed by the Rector during his/her term in office, in consultation with the chair or following a motion proposed by the chair. The deputy chair may be an academic teacher employed in the position of professor or associate professor, or holding the academic degree of doctor with habilitation.
 11. The function of chair or deputy chair of a scientific discipline council may not be combined with the position of Rector, vice-rector or director of a doctoral school.
 12. The list of scientific discipline councils at the University and their composition shall be communicated by the Rector .

§ 30.³⁾

1. Scientific discipline council sessions may be attended, without the right to vote, by a person invited by the council's chair or deputy chair.

2. A scientific discipline council may appoint committees to carry out procedures related to the conferment of an academic degree from among all the academic teachers employed in the position of professor or associate professor or with the degree of doctor with habilitation who have submitted a declaration on representing a given scientific discipline.
3. The organisation and procedure of a scientific discipline council's work shall be specified by a regulation defined by the Rector and approved by the Senate.

1. Scientific discipline council sessions shall be convened by its chair or deputy chair, on authorisation from the chair. Extraordinary sessions of a scientific discipline council shall be convened by the chair or deputy chair on their own authority or following a motion by at least two council members, within 14 days of the motion being submitted.
2. Except in urgent cases, written or electronic notification of a scientific discipline council session should be delivered to council members no later than 5 days prior to the session.
3. Notification should include the agenda defined by the scientific discipline council's chair or deputy chair.
4. A scientific discipline council may alter the agenda following a motion by the Rector, vice-rector for research or a council member.
5. Participation of scientific discipline council members in council sessions shall be obligatory.

1. The Rector shall appoint an ombuds officer for equality and anti-harassment policy.
2. The ombuds officer's term in office shall last four years and commence on 1 January following the year of the Rector's election.
3. The responsibilities of the ombuds officer shall include, in particular:
 - 1) initiating, implementing, coordinating or monitoring activities towards ensuring equal treatment, particularly regarding protection against discrimination and the prevention of harassment;
 - 2) taking measures aimed at eliminating or limiting the effects caused by the violation of the principle of equal treatment or a reasonable suspicion of harassment;
 - 3) promoting, popularising and disseminating the principles of equal treatment;
 - 4) devising and implementing a system to monitor gender equality;
 - 5) taking steps to investigate the validity of complaints in cases of harassment or violations of the principles of equal treatment.
4. The detailed scope of activity and work procedure of the ombuds officer shall be determined by the Rector.

1. The Rector may appoint and dismiss plenipotentiaries, advisors and experts, determining the scope of their responsibilities by means of a decree or written authorisation.
2. The Rector may authorise particular heads of organisational units or other University employees to undertake or perform actions or activities on his/her behalf.

§ 39.

The Rector may appoint permanent or temporary Rector's committees and determine their composition, work procedure, scope of duties and terms of office.

§ 40. deleted ⁶⁾

1. Elections for representatives for the Senate, referred to in § 25 section 1 points 2-4 and 6, shall be held at general assemblies of particular employee groups, in accordance with the rules and procedures specified in the Ordinance. The rules for electing representatives of students and doctoral students shall be determined by the regulations of the student council and the doctoral student council respectively.⁶⁾
2. Candidates to the Senate holding the position of single-person authority at another university or of deputy to such a person, founder of a non-public university or member of a body of a legal entity which is a founder of a non-public university, shall be obliged to resign from the above-mentioned functions or founder status.
3. Representatives for the Senate shall be elected by secret and direct ballot with an absolute majority of valid votes.
4. Detailed rules for elections to the Senate shall be specified by the Ordinance.

§ 42.

1. The mandate of a representative for the Senate shall expire during the term in office in the event of:
 - 1) death or the relinquishing of the mandate;
 - 2) dismissal by the electoral body according to the procedure specified by the Ordinance;
 - 3) termination of employment or studies, loss of status of student or doctoral student of the University;
 - 4) imposition of a disciplinary penalty on an academic teacher, student or doctoral student, as specified in Article 276 and Article 308 of the Act, or a reprimand on an employee who is not an academic teacher, as specified in Article 108 § 1 point 2 and § 2 of the Labour Code.
2. Should the mandate of a representative for the Senate expire, by-elections shall be held in accordance with the procedure specified in § 41.
3. The mandate of a representative for the Senate shall not expire during the term of office due to the termination of employment if another employment relationship is re-established with this representative from the first working day following the day of the termination of the previous employment relationship.

1. The College of Electors shall comprise:
 - 1) all members of the Senate whose term of office expires in the year of the Rector's election, with regard to the special principles of rotation in office concerning representatives of students and doctoral students, resulting from the electoral procedures and the duration of their Senate membership, as specified by the regulations of the student council and the doctoral student council respectively;¹⁰⁾
 - 2) three representatives of academic teachers employed in the position of professor and associate professor from each faculty, elected at a general assembly of this employee group held at each faculty;
 - 3) one representative of academic teachers employed in positions other than those specified in point 2, elected at a general assembly of this employee group held at each faculty;
 - 4) four representatives of academic teachers from extra-faculty units, elected at general assemblies; should the number of extra-faculty units equal two or three, the general assembly of the academic teachers of each unit shall elect one representative, with the remaining representatives (or representative) being elected at a joint general assembly of the academic teachers of all units; should the number of extra-faculty units equal four, the general assembly of the academic teachers of each unit shall elect one representative; should the number of extra-faculty units equal five or more, representatives shall be elected at a joint general assembly of the academic teachers of all units;
 - 5) representatives of students and doctoral students, elected with regard to the provisions of the Act, with the proviso that the total number of students and doctoral students in the College of Electors shall constitute 20% of the statutory composition of the College of Electors and that the electoral procedure for the College of Electors for students and doctoral students and the duration of their membership in the College of Electors shall be specified by the regulations of the student council and the doctoral student council respectively;¹⁰⁾

- 6) four representatives of employees who are not academic teachers, elected at general assemblies of particular employee groups, with the proviso that the general assembly of each employee group specified in § 114 section 1 points 1-4 shall elect one representative.
2. The term in office of the College of Electors shall correspond to the term in office of the Senate.⁶⁾

1. Electors shall be elected with an absolute majority of votes and with a quorum of at least 50% of those entitled to vote.
2. Should the general assemblies of employee groups specified in § 43 fail to elect group representatives due to the absence of a quorum, a representative of the University Electoral Committee shall order that an assembly be held without the quorum requirement. Such an assembly shall be considered to have been held at a later date. Information regarding such an election procedure should be included in the notice of an election assembly.

1. The Chair of the College of Electors shall be the most senior elector in terms of age.
2. Should a member of the College of Electors stand as a candidate for Rector, his or her mandate as a member of the College of Electors shall be suspended for the period of candidature and voting on this candidature.

§ 46.

§ 94a.⁶⁾

A recovery plan for a faculty or faculties may apply to financial management or the quality⁸⁾ of research activity.

§ 94b.⁶⁾

1. A recovery plan regarding financial management shall be devised and implemented for a faculty which in two consecutive calendar years has recorded a negative financial result exceeding 10% of the planned revenue per annum, subject to section 5.
2. A recovery plan regarding financial management, accompanied by a detailed schedule, shall comprise a list of measures with a view to:
 - 1) optimising employment at the unit;
 - 2) optimising the unit's operating costs;
 - 3) the possible transformation of a unit.
3. Following consultation with the faculty council, the dean shall devise a draft of a recovery plan regarding financial management and submit it to the Rector within three months from having received information on the negative financial result referred to in section 1. The Rector may introduce revisions to the draft of a recovery plan or return the draft of a recovery plan to the dean for alterations.
4. The Rector shall decide upon the recovery plan and issue instructions for its implementation.
5. Should the draft of a recovery plan show no prospect for the faculty to achieve a state of financial stability, the Rector shall withdraw from the decision on a recovery plan and from issuing instructions for its implementation, and undertake other necessary measures in accordance with the Statute.
6. The dean shall submit the first report on the implementation of the recovery plan to the Rector within three months from the Rector issuing instructions for its implementation, with subsequent reports submitted at least once every six months.

1. A recovery plan regarding the quality of research activity shall be devised and implemented for a faculty:
 - a. whose research activity in a given discipline has received a scientific category other than A+, A or B+ as a result of the evaluation of the quality of research activity; should the scientific discipline be present at more than one faculty, the recovery plan shall comprise all the faculties which represent this scientific discipline;
 - b. in relation to which, during the period covered by the evaluation, there exists a real risk of the research activity conducted at the faculty in a given discipline receiving the category B or C as a result of a forthcoming evaluation of the quality of research activity; should the scientific discipline be present at more than one faculty, the recovery plan shall comprise all the faculties which represent this scientific discipline.
2. A recovery plan regarding the quality of research activity, accompanied by a detailed schedule, shall comprise a list of measures with a view to:
 - 1) increasing the quality of the research conducted;
 - 2) optimising the number of research and research and didactic employees representing a given discipline;
 - 3) introducing necessary organisational changes.
3. Following consultation with the competent scientific discipline council and the faculty council, the dean shall devise a draft of a recovery plan and submit it to the Rector within three months from having received a decree from the Rector on the necessity of devising such a plan. In the decree on the necessity to devise a recovery plan, or as such a plan is being devised, the Rector may recommend that the dean seek opinion by experts from leading research centres in a given scientific discipline. The Rector may introduce revisions to the draft of a recovery plan or return the draft of a recovery plan to the dean for revision.

4. The Rector shall decide upon the recovery plan and issue instructions for its implementation.
5. Should the draft of a recovery plan show no prospect of achieving category A+, A or B+ in the scientific discipline referred to in section 1 as a result of the subsequent evaluation of the quality of research activity, the Rector shall withdraw from the decision on a recovery plan and from issuing instructions for its implementation, and undertake other necessary measures in accordance with the Statute.
6. The dean shall submit the first report on the implementation of the recovery plan to the Rector within three months from the Rector issuing instructions for its implementation, with subsequent reports submitted at least once every six months.

3. An academic teacher's first employment relationship with the University, if more than half of the full-time term of employment, for an indefinite period or a definite period exceeding three months, shall be established following an open competition.

4. The recruitment of academic teachers shall proceed in line with the rules of the University's personnel policy, the rules laid out in the "European Charter for Researchers" and the "Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers".
5. The employment relationship with an academic teacher shall be established by the Rector:
 - 1) following a motion by a dean or head of a general university unit, or
 - 2) upon his or her own initiative in consultation with a dean or head of a general university unit.
6. The employment relationship with an academic teacher shall be dissolved by the Rector, subject to Article 123 of the Act:
 - 1) following a motion by a dean or head of a general university unit, or
 - 2) upon his or her own initiative in consultation with a dean or head of a general university unit.
7. Should the Act provide for the termination of the employment relationship with an academic teacher at the end of a semester, the end of the winter semester shall be understood as the last day of February and the end of the summer semester as the last day of September.

§ 106.⁶⁾

The employment of an academic teacher in the position of researcher shall only occur if at least one of the conditions specified below in points 1-3 is met:

- 1) there exists a statutory basis for the employment of the academic teacher without holding a competition;
- 2) the academic teacher is being employed in a research station, an international research centre or another unit established for the purpose of implementing a research programme;
- 3) there exist other particularly important scientific considerations which justify the employment of the academic teacher in the position of researcher.

§ 107.

1. An academic teacher employed at the University may undertake or continue work under an employment contract with only one additional employer conducting didactic or scientific activity. An academic teacher undertaking or continuing additional work under an employment contract with the employer referred to in the first sentence shall require the consent of the Rector. Undertaking or continuing additional work without the Rector's consent shall constitute a basis for the termination of employment with notice.
2. The Rector shall refuse the consent referred to in section 1, should the rendition of didactic or scientific services with another employer detrimentally affect the University's functional capacity or should it involve the use of the University's technical equipment or resources.
3. An academic teacher who conducts business activity shall inform the Rector of the fact if the University constitutes this teacher's primary workplace.
4. The Rector undertaking or continuing additional work under an employment contract shall require the consent of the University Council. Such consent is granted for the duration of the Rector's term in office.
5. Detailed rules for the Rector, deans and academic teachers undertaking or continuing additional work under an employment contract shall be specified by the Act.

§ 108.

1. An open competition for the position of academic teacher shall be announced by the Rector on his/her own initiative or following a motion by a head of an organisational unit of the University.⁶⁾
2. A competition committee shall be convened by a competent dean or head of an organisational unit of the University.⁶⁾
3. The competition committee shall comprise at least three persons:
 - 1) a dean or head of a unit referred to in section 1 or an authorised person as the committee's chair;
 - 2) a person due to act as the candidate's immediate superior;
 - 3) a person employed in the position of professor or associate professor or holding the academic degree of doctor with habilitation, employed at an organisational unit of the University other than that in which the competition was announced.⁶⁾
4. A competition announcement shall contain:
 - 1) essential information about the position for which the competition is announced;
 - 2) a specification of requirements to be met by the candidate;
 - 3) a list of the documents required;
 - 4) the deadline for submitting applications;
 - 5) procedures for seeking additional references regarding the candidate;
 - 6) closing date for the competition;
 - 7) other important information.
5. A competition procedure shall not be required in the case of an amendment to the substance of an academic teacher's current employment relationship involving the employment of such a person in a higher position.

§ 109.

1. The competition procedure shall comprise:
 - 1) appointing the competition committee and its chair;
 - 2) the competition committee establishing the detailed requirements for the competition;
 - 3) the competition committee conducting and concluding the competition.
2. The competition shall be announced under the conditions specified in the Act. The period set for submitting competition documents may not be shorter than fourteen days.
3. A person whose impartiality may be in question may not be a member of the committee. Should any doubt arise, the committee chair shall take the decision to exclude such a person.
4. The competition committee:
 - 1) shall commence its work no later than fourteen days from the deadline for submitting applications;
 - 2) may, during the course of assessment, conduct an interview with candidate's academic achievement as well as ask the candidate to conduct classes which may be evaluated by students;
 - 3) shall conclude the competition by secret ballot with an the candidate and appoint reviewers of the

1. All academic teachers, with the exception of the Rector, shall be subject to periodic assessment.
2. Criteria for the periodic assessment for particular employee groups and types of positions, as well as its procedure and the body to conduct the periodic assessment, shall be determined by the Rector in consultation with the Senate, trade unions, the student council and the doctoral student council and with regard for the draft of detailed assessment criteria regarding scientific achievement referred to in § 32 section 1 point 5.
3. The periodic assessment shall be conducted once every four years or following a motion by the Rector.
4. The periodic assessment following a motion by the Rector shall be conducted in particular:
 - 1) in the event of the recovery plan referred to in § 94b having been devised and instructions having been issued for its implementation; in such a case the periodic assessment shall include the academic teachers employed at the faculty for which the recovery plan has been devised and instructions for its implementation issued;
 - 2) in the event of the recovery plan referred to in § 94c having been devised and instructions having been issued for its implementation; in such a case the periodic assessment shall include those academic teachers who have submitted a declaration on representing a given scientific discipline if this discipline has received a scientific category other than A+, A or B+ as a result of evaluation;
 - 3) in the event of a requirement to intensify scientific research and to publish its results, should such an assessment be requested by a head of an organisational unit; in such a case the periodic assessment shall include those academic teachers who have submitted a declaration on representing the scientific discipline in which it has become necessary to intensify scientific research and to publish its results.
5. In the case of a recently employed academic teacher, an assessment following a motion by the Rector shall be conducted no earlier than one year after employment.
6. Cases of absence of an academic teacher at work which form the basis for the periodic assessment deadline to be extended are laid down in Article 128 section 2 of the Act.
7. With regard to persons holding managerial positions at the University, persons delegated by the Rector to carry out additional organisational and developmental duties, as well as persons suffering the exceptional and long-term effects of fortuitous events, the four-year assessment period may be extended following a decision by the Rector.

§ 110a.⁶⁾

Subject to Article 117 section 3 of the Act, in the case of academic teachers employed without the obligation to undergo a competition procedure, a head of an organisational unit may request that an additional assessment be conducted to accompany a promotion procedure or extension of employment.

§ 111.

1. Conclusions resulting from the assessment shall influence the Rector's consent to an academic teacher undertaking additional employment under an employment contract.
2. The Rector may terminate an academic teacher's employment contract with notice in the event of that teacher receiving a negative assessment.

3. The Rector shall terminate an academic teacher's employment contract with notice in the event of that teacher receiving two subsequent negative assessments.

§ 112.

Academic teachers' working hours, as well as detailed rules and procedures for granting holiday leave and the leave referred to in Articles 130 and 131 section 1 of the Act, shall be specified by the work regulations.

 - 5) issuing a diploma duplicate and diploma supplement duplicate;
 - 6) the use of student halls of residence and student canteens.
3. The procedure and conditions for exemption from the fees referred to in sections 1 and 2 shall be determined by the Rector.
4. The fees to be collected from students, as well as the amount of these fees, shall be determined by the Rector prior to admissions. Determining the fees shall require consultation with the student council.

§ 130.

1. Admissions to first-cycle and second-cycle studies, as well as long-cycle studies, shall proceed under the rules specified in the Act and the resolution of the Senate.

2. The Senate shall determine the conditions, procedure and dates for the beginning and end of the admissions to study, as well as a manner in which they are to be conducted by 30 June of the year preceding the academic year in which the admissions are to be held.
3. Following motions by deans, the Rector shall determine the admission thresholds for a given academic year no later than six weeks before the start of admissions.
4. The Senate shall adopt the rules for admissions of the winners and finalists of central-level school contests and the winners of international and national contests at least four years in advance.

§ 131.

1. Procedures concerning admission to study by means of an admission process and by the verification of learning outcomes shall be conducted by committees appointed by the dean or the head of the unit which offers the study.⁸⁾
2. Admission to study shall proceed by means of entry into the register of students.
3. Refusal of admission to study shall proceed by way of an administrative decision signed by the chair of the committee.
4. An appeal against a decision of the committee may be brought before the Rector.

§ 132.⁸⁾

1. The decision regarding admission to study by transferring a student from another university or a foreign university shall be taken by the Rector or the Vice-Rector for Education acting on authorisation from the Rector, in consultation with the dean or the head of the unit which offers the study.
2. The decision regarding the resumption of studies shall be taken by the deputy dean for education or student affairs acting on authorisation from the Rector or by the head or the deputy head for education or student affairs of the unit which offers the study, acting on authorisation from the Rector. The request to reconsider the decision regarding the resumption of studies shall be examined by the Rector or the Vice-Rector for Education acting on authorisation from the Rector.

§ 133.

A person accepted into studies shall commence their studies and acquire the rights of a student upon taking the following oath: "Upon entering the academic community of the University of Gdańsk, I undertake to pursue knowledge and act wisely in order to render service wherever I may be. I promise my homeland, teachers, peers and family, and myself, that I shall remain faithful to the ideals of humanism and traditions of tolerance, and that I shall act with integrity, courage, inquisitiveness and diligence in the pursuit of truth. By accepting the laws of the academic authority and the traditions of the student fellowship, and eager to comply with my responsibilities, I hereby affiliate myself with those who maintain the dignity of this University and the dignity of the academic community".

§ 134.

Students shall be obliged to observe the legal regulations in force at the University, University traditions and sound academic practice, as well as the text of the oath.

§ 135.

The organisation of studies and the resulting student rights and obligations shall be defined by the study regulations.

§ 136.

A student may pursue an individual programme of study, also with regard to academic supervision, under the rules specified in the study regulations.

§ 137.

1. Students of first- and second-cycle studies as well as long-cycle studies offered by the University shall constitute the student council.
2. The bodies of the student council shall act as the sole representation of the University's student community.
3. The University shall provide the material resources necessary for the functioning of the bodies of the student council.
4. In consultation with the student council, the Rector shall divide the subsidy referred to in Article 365 point 3 of the Act.
5. The University legislative body of the student council shall adopt regulations to specify the structure and organisation of the council and constitute the basis for its activity. The regulations shall enter into force upon the Rector ensuring its compliance with the Act and the Statute within thirty days from receiving the regulations.¹⁾
6. The bodies of the student council shall adopt and promote a code of student ethics.
7. The responsibilities of the student council include representing and protecting the interests of students with regard to matters connected with the process of education and instruction and the social, living and cultural requirements of students, as well as cooperating with the bodies of the University in matters provided for in the Act and the Statute.
8. The bodies of the student council shall inform the Rector of the acts adopted, including resolutions. The Rector shall reject those acts adopted by the student council which do not comply with generally applicable law, the Statute, study regulations or the regulations of the student council. An appeal to the administrative court may be lodged with regard to a rejection of an act, within thirty days from the rejection being received. Provisions concerning appeals to the administrative court with regard to administrative decisions shall apply by analogy.¹⁾

1. A student may apply for the benefits referred to in Article 86 section 1 of the Act, under the conditions laid down in the Act.
2. Student benefit regulations shall be determined by the Rector in consultation with the student council.
3. The granting of, or the refusal to grant, the benefit referred to in Article 86 section 1 points 1-4 of the Act, shall proceed via an administrative decision.
4. Following a motion by the student council, the benefits shall be granted by the University Scholarship Committee and the Scholarship Appeal Committee.
5. The University Scholarship Committee shall be appointed by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs. The Committee shall comprise three students and two employees of the University. The decision shall be signed by the chair of the Committee or the Committee's deputy chair authorised by the chair.
6. Section 5 shall apply to the Scholarship Appeal Committee by analogy.

§ 139.

1. Students shall have the right to be members of university student organisations.

2. On the establishment of a student organisation, its board shall immediately inform the Rector and a competent dean. The University shall keep a register of student organisations functioning at the University.
3. Student organisations functioning at the University shall comprise in particular scientific, artistic and sports circles.
4. After the conclusion of an academic year, a student organisation shall submit a report on its activity to the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.
5. The Rector shall reject any act of a student organisation's body which contradicts the generally applicable law, the Statute, the study regulations or the regulations of this organisation.
6. The Rector shall dissolve, by means of an administrative decision, any student organisation which grossly or persistently infringes the generally applicable law, the Statute, the study regulations or the regulations of this organisation.
7. A student organisation may also be dissolved following a decision by the appropriate body of this organisation, taken under the conditions laid down in its regulations, or following a motion by the dean or director of a general university unit, should it be established that the organisation is no longer active.

The education of doctoral students at the University shall take place at a doctoral school. A doctoral school shall consist of the organised instruction of doctoral students in at least two scientific disciplines.

§ 141.

1. Admission to a doctoral school shall be carried out by means of a competition under the conditions specified in the Act and the resolution of the Senate.
2. The procedure regarding admission to a doctoral school shall be carried out by an admissions committee appointed by the Rector.
3. Admission to a doctoral school shall be carried out by way of an entry into the register of doctoral students by the director of a doctoral school.
4. Refusal of admission to a doctoral school shall proceed by way of an administrative decision, issued by the director of a doctoral school, under the authority of the Rector. An application to reconsider the decision may be submitted.

§ 142.

1. A person accepted into a doctoral school shall commence their education and acquire the rights of a doctoral student upon taking the following oath: "Upon accepting the honour of being a University of Gdańsk doctoral student, I undertake to pursue knowledge and act wisely in order to render service wherever I may be. I promise my homeland, teachers, colleagues, family, and myself, that I shall remain faithful to the ideals of humanism and traditions of tolerance, and that I shall act with integrity, courage, diligence and inquisitiveness in furthering science and the pursuit of truth. By accepting the laws of the academic authority and the traditions of the university community, and eager to comply with my responsibilities, I hereby affiliate myself with those who maintain the dignity of this University and the dignity of the academic community".
2. The length of education at a doctoral school shall amount to between six to eight semesters, depending on the field and scientific discipline in which the education is offered.

3. The doctoral school curriculum shall specify in particular the learning outcomes for qualifications at Level 8 of the Polish Qualifications Framework, content related to the preparation of a doctoral dissertation and content preparing for active participation in scientific research conducted in Poland and abroad. The curriculum may provide for the completion of no more than 60 didactic hours annually of professional practice.
4. The organisation of education at a doctoral school shall be defined by the doctoral school regulations.

§ 143.¹⁰⁾

The mid-term evaluation on the implementation of a doctorate student's individual research plan shall be carried out by a committee appointed by the director of a doctoral school and comprising three persons, including at least one person with the degree of doctor with habilitation or the title of professor in the discipline in which the doctoral dissertation is being prepared, employed outside the University, or the person referred to in Article 190 section 5 of the Act.

§ 144.

1. For doctoral students § 127 section 1 shall apply by analogy.⁶⁾
2. Doctoral students studying at a doctoral school shall form the doctoral student council. For the doctoral student council § 137 shall apply by analogy.
3. The bodies of the doctoral student council shall adopt and promote the doctoral student code of ethics.
4. For university organisations of doctoral students § 138 shall apply by analogy.

Chapter 7. The University's administration and management

§ 145.

The administration of the University shall comprise organisational units established in order to provide conditions for the full implementation of the University's statutory functions, including in particular scientific and didactic functions, to organise social assistance for employees, students and doctoral students, and to participate in the management of University assets.

§ 146.

The University's administration shall be managed by the Chancellor within the scope specified by legal provisions, the Statute and the organisational regulations.

§ 147.

1. Under the authority of the Rector, the Chancellor shall be in charge of the assets and management of the University within the scope of general management.
2. The responsibilities of the Chancellor shall include in particular:
 - 1) providing material conditions for the implementation of the University's goals;
 - 2) supervision of the University's economic activity;
 - 3) participation in the preparation of the annual material and financial plans;
 - 4) carrying out other duties designated by the Rector, including ensuring order and safety on University premises;
 - 5) supervision of the administrative and technical activity, as well as organising and coordinating this activity;

- 6) ensuring the flow of information and documentation;
 - 7) managing real estate;
 - 8) organising investment and refurbishment processes;
 - 9) providing transport.
3. The Rector shall reject or alter the Chancellor's decision should it prove unlawful or should it infringe upon the interest of the University.

§ 148.

Heads of administrative units shall supervise the work of these units. Employees of the University who are not academic teachers shall be answerable to the heads of the organisational units in which they work.

§ 149.

1. The University's assets shall include:
 - 1) real estate for which the University has legal and beneficial title to occupy, to possess, to exploit and to use;
 - 2) moveable property;
 - 3) intellectual property rights, particularly proprietary copyright and related rights, industrial property rights to intangible goods created by employees, students and doctoral students of the University;
 - 4) other property and non-property rights, vested in the University in accordance with the principles of generally applicable law or acquired on the basis of agreements.
2. The name and emblem, trademarks and other individualising markings of the University, headed paper, internet addresses, the University's assets and other intangible goods may be used by employees, students and doctoral students exclusively for purposes connected with employment or education at the University. Using the aforementioned subjects of intellectual property for other purposes shall require consent from the Rector.
3. Legal acts connected with the University's assets, subject to § 147, shall be executed by the Rector, and by other persons in cases of authorisation granted by the Rector.
4. Decisions regarding the assets and management of the University which go beyond the scope of general management shall be taken by the Rector or, if provided for by the Act or the Statute, by the Rector subject to approval by the Senate or University Council.
5. Detailed rules for the financial management of the University shall be specified by the Rector, following consultation with the competent Senate committee.

1. The decision on the allocation of fixed asset components to organisational units shall be taken by the Rector. The Rector may authorise the Chancellor to allocate fixed asset components to designated unit categories.
2. Should the relocated fixed asset components constitute research infrastructure, the Rector shall arrive at a decision in consultation with the head of the organisational unit concerned.
3. Detailed rules and procedure for the allocation and relocation of fixed asset components shall be specified by the Rector.

§ 151.

A person responsible for the appropriate use and securing of assets allocated to an organisational unit shall be the head of this unit or another person specified in separate internal regulations of the University.

§ 152.

The University may obtain financial resources from sources specified in the Act.

§ 153.

The University shall cover the costs of its activity, obligations and expenditure on development and other needs from the resources specified in § 152.

§ 154.

1. The University may establish, from resources outside the state budget, its own scholarship fund with scholarships for employees, students and doctoral students. A decision on establishing such a fund and the rules for its management shall be taken by the Senate.
2. Scholarships from the fund referred to in section 1 may be awarded irrespective of scholarships awarded from state budget resources.
3. Rules for awarding the scholarships referred to in section 1 to students and doctoral students shall be determined with the involvement of the student council or the doctoral student council respectively.

1. The University shall manage its finances independently on the basis of a material and financial plan, in accordance with public finance and accountancy regulations.⁴⁾
2. Following an assessment by the University Council, the Rector may introduce changes to the material and financial plan. A change to the material and financial plan may be introduced in the year to which the plan refers and where justified – no later than three months from the end of the financial year.⁶⁾
3. A head of an organisational unit, a head of a project or another person authorised by the Rector to dispose of financial resources, shall be responsible for their appropriate and lawful disposal.

§ 156.

Organisational units of the University shall accept donations, including those in the form of books, materials or equipment, only with the consent of the Rector, or of the Senate in the case of a donation exceeding 200,000 PLN.

§ 157.

1. The University may conduct economic activity, organisationally and financially separate from the activity referred to in Article 11 of the Act. The scope of the economic activity of the University may cover publishing, production, commercial or service activity.
2. In order to conduct the economic activity referred to in section 1, the University may establish capital companies or organisationally and financially separate units functioning within the University's organisational structure. Capital companies may also be established by the University in cooperation with other entities.
3. The Rector shall establish and dissolve organisational units of the University which conduct organisationally and financially independent economic activity. The scope of the activity, responsibilities and the internal structure of these units shall be determined by the Rector, unless stated otherwise by the Statute.

4. The capital companies referred to in section 2 shall be established by the Rector with the consent of the Senate.

Chapter 8. Disciplinary responsibility of academic teachers, students and doctoral students § 158.

An academic teacher shall be liable to disciplinary action for any disciplinary offence which violates the duties of an academic teacher or the dignity of the academic teaching profession.

§ 159.

1. To rule on disciplinary matters regarding academic teachers at first instance, the Senate shall appoint a University Disciplinary Committee for Academic Teachers comprising:
 - 1) a chair;
 - 2) four representatives from the Faculty of Law and Administration and one representative from each of the remaining faculties;
 - 3) four representatives of the student council;
 - 4) a representative of the doctoral student council;
 - 5) one representative each from the Foreign Languages Centre and the Physical Education and Sports Centre.
2. Candidates for membership of the Committee referred to in section 1 shall be proposed respectively by deans, the student council, the doctoral student council, the Director of the Foreign Languages Centre and the Director of the Physical Education and Sports Centre.
3. The Chair of the Committee shall be an academic teacher employed in the position of professor or associate professor or holding the degree of doctor with habilitation.⁶⁾

§ 160.

1. The decisions of the University Disciplinary Committee for Academic Teachers shall be taken by a three-person panel comprising the chair of the arbitration panel (who shall be an academic teacher), as well as one academic teacher and one student.
2. The arbitration panel shall be appointed by the Committee Chair, subject to the requirements provided for in Article 291 section 3 of the Act.
3. At least one member of the Committee's arbitration panel should hold a degree in law.

§ 161.

1. Membership of the University Disciplinary Committee for Academic Teachers shall cease before the end of the term in office in the event of:
 - 1) written notice of resignation submitted to the Rector;
 - 2) the termination of studies, loss of the status of student or doctoral student of the University or the status of academic teacher employed at the University;
 - 3) legally binding disciplinary action.
2. The Senate may dismiss a member of the University Disciplinary Committee for Academic Teachers following a motion by the Committee Chair or the Rector, should the member fail to participate in Committee procedures.

3. Should membership of the University Disciplinary Committee for Academic Teachers cease, or should a member of the Committee be dismissed, the Senate shall appoint a new member for the Committee's remaining term in office. The provisions of § 159 shall apply by analogy.

§ 162.

1. In order to rule on disciplinary matters regarding students, the Senate shall appoint:
 - 1) a Disciplinary Committee for Students to rule at first instance;
 - 2) a Disciplinary Appeal Committee for Students to rule on appeals.
2. The Disciplinary Committee for Students shall comprise:
 - 1) four representatives of the Faculty of Law and Administration designated by the dean and one representative from each of the remaining faculties designated by the dean;
 - 2) representatives of the student council designated in accordance with the rules specified in the council's regulations – equal in number to the number of academic teachers appointed.
3. The Chair and Deputy Chair of the Disciplinary Committee for Students shall be elected by the Senate by secret ballot, following a motion by the Rector, from amongst members of the Committee who are academic teachers holding no less than the academic degree of doctor.
4. For the appointment of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee for Students sections 2 and 3 shall apply by analogy. The Chair of the Committee should hold a degree in law.
5. The term in office of the Committees referred to in section 1 shall correspond to the term in office of the Senate. The mandates of the student representatives in the committees shall expire on 31 October each year.⁶⁾
6. For the Disciplinary Committee for Students and the Disciplinary Appeal Committee for Students, §§ 160 and 161 shall apply by analogy.
7. The Disciplinary Committee for Students and the Disciplinary Appeal Committee for Students shall rule in a three-person panel, comprising the chair of the arbitration panel (who shall be an academic teacher), as well as one academic teacher and one student.
8. The ombuds officers for disciplinary affairs referred to in Article 309 of the Act should, within three months from initiating investigation proceedings, discontinue the proceedings or submit a request to the Disciplinary Committee for Students that a penalty be imposed.
9. The period between the initiation of disciplinary proceedings and the issuing of a ruling by the Disciplinary Committee for Students should not exceed three months, unless disciplinary proceedings have been suspended.

§ 163.

1. The Disciplinary Committee for Doctoral Students shall be competent to rule at first instance on disciplinary matters regarding doctoral students.
2. The Disciplinary Appeal Committee for Doctoral Students shall be competent to rule on appeals in disciplinary matters regarding doctoral students.
3. For the Committees referred to in sections 1 and 2, § 162 shall apply by analogy.

Chapter 9. Proceedings before University bodies and procedural matters

§ 164.⁶⁾

1. The Rector may suspend or repeal decisions, rulings or resolutions adopted by the authorities of the University's organisational units which violate the law, infringe the provisions of the Statute or infringe upon the vital interests of the University. In suspending a decision, ruling or resolution, the Rector shall make recommendations regarding the further proceedings of the authorities of a University organisational unit. Should the recommendations not be observed, the ruling or resolution shall expire with the deadline set for the implementation of the recommendations.
2. The Rector may repeal a decision or a ruling taken by a person holding a managerial position at the University which violates the law, infringes the provisions of the Statute or infringes upon the vital interests of the University.
3. The provisions of sections 1-2 shall not apply to administrative decisions, rulings and other acts or actions undertaken as part of administrative proceedings.

§ 164a.¹⁰⁾

In the case of a faculty council's prolonged failure to carry out its duties, the Rector, in consultation with the University Council, may suspend the faculty council and entrust its duties to the dean for a limited period not exceeding three months.

§ 165.

1. The Rector shall communicate the following on the Public Information Bulletin site:
 - 1) resolutions of the University Council;
 - 2) resolutions of the Senate;
 - 3) decrees of the Rector;
 - 4) resolutions of scientific discipline councils;
 - 5) decrees of a dean, the Chancellor and the Director of the Library.
2. The normative acts referred to in section 1 shall come into force on the day specified in a given act.
3. The Rector shall specify the detailed rules for creating and promulgating internal regulations in force at the University.

§ 166.

1. Resolutions of the University Council, the Senate, scientific discipline councils as well as faculty councils or other collective bodies which are not a University body, shall be adopted with an absolute majority of votes, in the presence of at least half of the total number of members of a given body, council or panel, unless otherwise specified by legal provisions, the Statute or the Ordinance.⁶⁾
2. In justified circumstances, the University's bodies or collective bodies (including councils, teams or committees) may, on the basis of a decision by the chair of the body or the collective body, adopt resolutions by means of distance communication or by way of circulation, having informed the members of the body or the collective body of the content of the resolution project and the deadline for casting votes, set by the chair of the body or the collective body.¹⁰⁾
3. Votes cast on behalf of absentees shall be inadmissible.

4. The results of a vote on a resolution shall include the total number of votes cast in favour, against, and abstentions.

§ 166a.⁶⁾

1. Sessions of the University's collective bodies (including councils, panels or committees), with the exception of disciplinary committees, may be conducted (also in cases other than those directly specified in the Statute or the Ordinance) by electronic means of communication allowing for, in particular:
 - 1) live streaming of the session among its participants,
 - 2) multilateral real-time communication in which participants may express opinions during the session
– in compliance with the necessary safety rules.
2. The session referred to in section 1 may not be conducted by electronic means of communication should any member of the collective body voice an objection.

§ 167.

Any person with a direct interest in an issue shall not participate in the voting on this issue and shall not be considered a member of the collective body in question as regards the result of the voting; that person shall be excluded from the number of members of the body and from the number of those present in the session.

§ 168.

1. A secret ballot shall be held if:
 - 1) required by generally applicable law, the Statute or the regulations;
 - 2) the matter concerns the title of professor or an academic degree, employment at the University, promotion, dismissal, award, distinction or a motion regarding disciplinary liability;
 - 3) requested by a member of a collective body.
2. In all other instances the ballot shall be open.

§ 169.

1. Resolutions of the University Council, the Senate, scientific discipline councils or other committees, as well as a council or an advisory panel which is not a University body, the student council and the doctoral student council, shall be made public.
2. Resolutions concerning personnel matters or matters which may infringe upon the legitimate interest or the good name of an individual shall not be made public.

§ 170.

1. Employees, students and doctoral students of the University shall have the right to organise assemblies on University premises.
2. Organising an assembly on University premises shall require consent from the Rector or the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs or Doctoral Student Affairs, or the Chancellor, deputising for the Rector. Consent shall be issued on the basis of an application by the organiser, validated by the head of an organisational unit of the University who manages the premises in which the assembly is to be held.
3. The Rector shall be notified in writing as to the intention to organise an assembly at least twenty-four hours before the assembly is due to commence. In justifiably urgent situations the Rector may accept notification submitted within a shorter period of time.

4. Notification to the Rector on the intention to organise an assembly should specify:
 - 1) the place, date, time of the start and planned duration of the assembly;
 - 2) the objective and basic items on the assembly agenda;
 - 3) the organisers of the assembly;
 - 4) the measures to ensure the peaceful nature of the assembly.
5. Should an assembly be organised as part of a faculty, a general university unit or the Main Library, an intention to organise such an assembly should also be submitted to the dean or head of a particular organisational unit.
6. The organiser of the assembly shall be responsible before University bodies for the progress of the assembly and shall be obliged to provide appropriate measures to protect the assembly.

§ 171.

1. The chair shall open, preside over and close an assembly, as well as ensure its peaceful nature and prevent anything which may compromise safety or public order.
2. The chair shall be obliged to:
 - 1) remove participants whose behaviour disrupts the course of the assembly or prevents it from proceeding in a peaceful manner;
 - 2) dissolve an assembly should participants fail to observe the chair's instructions issued as part of his or her duties and as such pose a threat to the peaceful nature of the assembly.
3. Participants in the assembly shall be obliged to leave the place of the assembly as soon as it is dissolved or closed, without undue delay.

§ 172.

1. The Rector shall have the right to delegate a representative to an assembly.
2. The Rector or the Rector's representative may dissolve an assembly should the assembly's chair fail to fulfil his or her obligations.
3. The dissolution of an assembly shall be preceded by a caution.

§ 173.

The time, place and progress of an assembly should not interfere with didactic activity.

§ 174.

1. Each employee, student or doctoral student shall have the right to lodge a complaint to the Rector regarding an act contrary to the law, the Statute or the good of the University, should this act infringe on his or her legitimate interest.
2. Persons directly concerned shall be notified as to the content of the complaint, thus allowing them to present clarification and other proof. Should any doubt arise, the substance of the complaint should be scrutinised and the facts established.
3. A reply to the complaint should be issued in writing, no later than within a month of the complaint being lodged.

§ 175.

In matters regarding proceedings before University bodies not covered by separate regulations, the provisions of the Act of 14 June 1960, the Administrative Procedure Code, shall apply accordingly.

Chapter 10. Transitional and final provisions

§ 176.

The Statute shall enter into force on 1 October 2019.

§ 177.

The University's organisational units in operation on 30 September 2019 shall become appropriate organisational units of the University within the meaning of this Statute with effect from 1 October 2019.

§ 178.

Committees, councils and other panels existing at the University on 30 September 2019 shall with effect from 1 October 2019 become appropriate committees, councils and other panels, unless specified otherwise by the Act.

§ 179.

The mandates of persons entrusted with the functions of Vice-Rector, Dean or Deputy Dean, whose terms in office commenced prior to 1 October 2019 shall expire once this Statute enters into force. With regard to the Rector appointing deans for the period from 1 October 2019 to 31 August 2020, the provisions of § 72 section 1 on selecting candidates for Dean shall not apply.

§ 180.

1. Persons serving as directors or heads of the University's organisational units on 30 September 2019, with the exception of directors of institutes, shall with effect from 1 October 2019 become directors or heads of the appropriate organisational units of the University within the meaning of this Statute.
2. The Provisions of section 1 shall apply by analogy to deputy directors and deputy heads, with the exception of deputy directors of institutes.

§ 181.

Any adjustment of the structure and composition of the University's organisational units in order to comply with the requirements of this Statute shall be completed by 1 October 2020.

§ 182.

Between 1 October 2019 and 31 December 2023 substantive supervision of doctoral studies commenced prior to the academic year 2019/2020 shall be exercised by the Vice-Rector for Education.

§ 183.

The Rector for the term 2020-2024 shall be elected by the College of Electors referred to in Article 228 section 7 of the Act of 3 July 2018 – the Implementing provisions to the Law on Higher Education and Science.

§ 184.⁹⁾

An employment relationship with a nominated academic teacher may be terminated due to other important reasons within the meaning of Article 125 of the Act of 27 July 2005 – Law on Higher Education, in connection with Article 248 of the Act of 3 July 2018 – Provisions introducing the Act – Law on Higher Education and Science, in consultation with the Senate.

Chapter 1. General provisions

§ 1. Scope of activity

1. The University of Gdańsk Electoral Ordinance, referred to in the Statute or hereinafter as “Ordinance”, shall specify detailed rules and procedures for the election of University bodies and a candidate or candidates for dean recommended by a faculty council.
2. The Ordinance shall not be applied in a regulatory function in regulations of the student council and the doctoral student council.
3. Elections for University bodies shall be carried out by the University Electoral Committee or a faculty electoral committee. Election of a candidate or candidates for dean, recommended by a faculty council, shall be conducted by a faculty electoral committee.
4. Technical assistance in the elections shall be provided by the Rector.
5. The provisions of § 3 – § 7 of Chapter 1 of the Ordinance shall apply, unless provided for otherwise by the Act, the Statute or the special provisions of the Ordinance.

§ 2. Terms

The terms used in this Ordinance shall be understood as follows:

- 1) UEC – the University Electoral Committee;
- 2) FEC – a faculty electoral committee;
- 3) CE – the College of Electors;
- 4) elector – a member of the College of Electors;
- 5) Act – the Act of 20 July 2018 – Law on Higher Education and Science;
- 6) electoral meeting – an assembly of persons with active electoral rights, convened by UEC or FEC for the purpose of electoral activities; a faculty council session convened in order to elect a candidate or candidates for dean shall also be deemed an electoral meeting;
- 7) active electoral right – the right to vote;
- 8) passive electoral right – the right to stand as a candidate and assume a position, mandate or role;
- 9) absolute majority of votes – at least one affirmative vote more than the sum of the remaining valid votes against and abstentions or, in a situation which calls for an election from amongst at least two candidates, valid votes cast for a given candidate by more than a half of the voters;
- 10) University bodies – single-person body: the Rector, collective bodies: the University Council, the Senate, scientific disciplines councils and faculty councils as well as an electoral body – the College of Electors. The provisions of the Ordinance regarding collective bodies shall apply accordingly to faculty councils;
- 11) state of epidemic emergency and state of epidemic – a state of epidemic emergency and a state of epidemic within the meaning of the Act of 5 December 2008 on the prevention and combatting of infections and infectious diseases in humans;
- 12) extraordinary measures – extraordinary measures within the meaning of the provisions of Chapter XI. Extraordinary measures of the Constitution of the Republic of Poland of 2 April 1997.

§ 3. Electoral calendar

The electoral calendar shall be determined and communicated to voters by the University Electoral Committee. The electoral calendar shall not be determined should a need arise to hold by-elections or to elect a candidate or candidates for dean during a term in office.

§ 4. Election meetings

1. An election meeting agenda shall be determined and an election meeting convened by an appropriate chair of the University Electoral Committee or a faculty electoral committee.
2. An announcement of an election meeting shall be communicated at least three days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting.
3. An announcement of an election meeting of a given group of employees should be placed on notice boards in the building of the appropriate organisational unit of the University, circulated by means of electronic post to interested employees and posted on the University's internet page. During a state of epidemic emergency, a state of epidemic or a state of emergency, the announcement of an election meeting shall only be posted on the University's internet page and circulated by means of electronic post to interested employees.
4. Election meetings shall adopt resolutions on electoral matters in the presence of at least 50% of individuals entitled to participate in the meeting.
5. Unless otherwise provided for by the Statute, a representative of an election committee shall, in the absence of a quorum, set a date for a second meeting, without the requirement of a quorum. Information regarding such a meeting procedure shall be included in the announcement of an election meeting.
6. Election meetings of particular groups of employees shall be headed by chairs elected with a majority of votes by open ballot. An election meeting shall be opened and the election of a chair conducted by a representative of the University Electoral Committee or an appropriate faculty electoral committee.
7. An election meeting shall conduct voting until all mandates have been filled. Should any mandate remain unfilled after five voting sessions, the election meeting participants may decide, by a majority of votes, that the meeting be postponed or closed.
8. On the basis of a decision by the chair of an appropriate electoral committee, election meetings may be held by means of electronic communication allowing for, in particular:
 - 1) live streaming of the session among its participants;
 - 2) multilateral real-time communication in which participants may express opinions during the session– in compliance with the necessary safety rules.
9. In justified circumstances, on the basis of a decision by the chair of an appropriate electoral committee, election meetings may also adopt resolutions by means of distance communication or by way of circulation, having informed the members of the body or the collective body of the content of the resolution project and the deadline for casting votes, set by the chair of the appropriate electoral committee.

§ 5. Standing as a candidate

1. All participants in the meeting with the active right to vote shall have the right to nominate candidates for the single-person body and collective bodies of the University.
2. The nomination of candidates shall be open. Should candidates be nominated prior to the election meeting, such nominations should be made in writing and submitted to the election committee which conducts particular elections.

3. Placing a person on a list of candidates for University bodies, a faculty council, the University Electoral Committee, a faculty electoral committee or a ballot-counting committee shall require the nominee's consent.

§ 6. Voting

1. University bodies shall be elected by secret and direct ballot (voting can only take place in person) with an absolute majority of votes.
2. If one or more mandates (positions or roles) are to be filled and only one candidate is standing, each person with active electoral rights shall have one vote, with the voting consisting in this person casting a vote for, against or abstaining.
3. If one mandate (position or role) is to be filled and two or more candidates are standing, each person with active electoral rights shall have one vote, with the voting consisting in this person casting a vote for one candidate.
4. If two or more mandates (positions or roles) are to be filled and two or more candidates are standing, each person with active electoral rights shall have as many votes as there are mandates (positions or roles) to be filled, with the voting consisting in this person casting votes for the candidates, provided that the number of votes cast cannot exceed the number of mandates (positions or roles) to be filled.
5. Elections shall be conducted by means of ballot papers bearing the appropriate stamp of the UEC or the FEC and the name of the candidate or candidates. The requirement to mark ballot papers with the stamp of the UEC or the FEC shall not apply in the case of voting according to the procedure specified in § 4 section 8.
6. Should more than one candidate be proposed, the list of candidates shall be drawn up in alphabetical order.
7. Models of ballot papers constitute Annex no. 1 to this Ordinance.
8. Should no candidate obtain an absolute majority of votes at the first ballot, a subsequent ballot should exclude the candidate who obtained the lowest number of votes at the previous ballot. Voting is to be conducted until one of the candidates obtains an absolute majority of votes. Should two or more candidates at any stage obtain the same lowest number of votes, those candidates are excluded before the next ballot, unless this eliminates all or all but one of the candidates. In such an exceptional case, an additional ballot is to be held only for candidates who have obtained the same lowest number of votes, in order to elect one candidate. The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes in the additional ballot shall proceed to the next stage of the elections.
9. In counting votes and establishing election results, only valid votes shall be considered.
10. A vote shall be valid if it has been cast on a valid ballot paper, bearing the number of candidates not exceeding the number of mandates (positions or roles) to be filled.
11. A vote shall not be valid if no choice was made on the ballot paper, more candidates have been selected than the number of mandates (positions or roles) to be filled, the ballot paper has been torn up or the vote has not been cast on an official ballot paper. Writing additional surnames on the ballot paper, making any other annotations or damaging the ballot paper without obliterating the vote cast shall not affect the validity of the vote.
12. Invalid votes shall not be considered in counting the required majority of votes.
13. In the case of significant irregularities arising in the course of the voting (in particular when the number of votes cast exceeds the number of the ballot papers distributed or the number of persons who have signed the voter attendance list), the UEC or FEC chair may, immediately after the conclusion of the voting, decide that a new vote be held. In such a case, § 4 section 2 of the Ordinance shall apply, subject to section 14.

14. Should voting be conducted by means of electronic communication, it may be repeated immediately after the conclusion of the voting in the course of which significant irregularities have been identified, namely:
 - 1) in the case of voting conducted by videoconference, information on and justification for a revote, as well as the new voting date shall be communicated directly to the videoconference participants;
 - 2) in the case of voting conducted within a timeframe, information on and justification for a revote, as well as the new voting date shall be communicated via an announcement on the electronic platform (application) used to conduct elections, within fifteen minutes from the end of the timeframe dedicated to the casting of votes.
15. Within three days of a decision on a revote, the chair of the UEC or the FEC shall prepare a written justification for this decision.
16. The result of the voting and the result of the election shall be announced to the meeting participants by a ballot-counting committee.

§ 7. The ballot-counting committee

1. In order to establish the results of the voting and the results of the election, a ballot-counting committee shall be elected by participants of an election meeting from among persons not standing as candidates or other University employees, comprising at least three persons, subject to § 15 section 2.
2. The ballot-counting committee shall establish and announce the results of the voting and results of the election and prepare two copies of a report on the election activities carried out. One copy of the report should be immediately submitted by the chair of the meeting to the University Electoral Committee.

Chapter 2. Electoral committees

§ 8. Composition of electoral committees

1. By 30 October of the year preceding the election year, the Senate shall determine the number of members of the UEC and the FEC.
2. The Senate shall elect members of the UEC and the FEC by the end of November of the year preceding the election year. Any member of the UEC or the FEC may be dismissed by the Senate.
3. Members of the UEC, academic teachers representing faculties, shall be elected by the Senate from amongst persons nominated by deans, and from extra-faculty units – by directors of these units. A representative of employees who are not academic teachers shall be elected by the Senate from amongst candidates elected at an election meeting of this employee group. Members of the UEC from the groups of students and doctoral students shall be elected by the Senate from amongst candidates nominated by the student council and the doctoral student council.
4. Members of the FEC shall be elected by the Senate from amongst persons nominated by deans.
5. Members of the UEC and the FEC shall be elected by an absolute majority of votes.

6. The mandate of a member of the UEC or the FEC shall expire when this member stands as a candidate for a body or for membership of a body chosen by the electoral committee of which he or she is a member.
7. The Senate shall complement the composition of the UEC should the number of members fall below fifteen.
8. The Senate shall complement the composition of the FEC should the number of members fall below three.
9. The term in office of the UEC and the FEC shall terminate when new UEC and new FECs are appointed.
10. The mandate of a member of the UEC or the FEC shall expire due to:
 - 1) death or the relinquishing of the mandate;
 - 2) dismissal by the Senate;
 - 3) termination of employment or studies, loss of status of student or doctoral student of the University;
 - 4) imposition of a disciplinary penalty on an academic teacher, student or doctoral student or an employee who is not an academic teacher;
 - 5) the circumstances specified in section 6.
11. If necessary, expiry of the mandate of a member of the UEC may be confirmed by the Rector and by a dean in the case of a member of the FEC.

§ 9. Responsibilities of electoral committees

1. The responsibilities of the UEC shall include, in particular:
 - 1) conducting elections for:
 - a) Rector,
 - b) University of Gdańsk Council,
 - c) Senate – with regard to the representatives referred to in § 25 section 1 points 4 and 6 of the Statute,
 - d) College of Electors – with regard to the representatives referred to in § 43 points 4 and 6 of the Statute,
 - e) scientific discipline councils – with regard to the representatives referred to in § 29 section 4 point 1 of the Statute;
 - 2) supervision of the activities carried out by the FEC, including the revocation of FEC resolutions which violate the provisions of law, the Statute or the Ordinance;
 - 3) supervision of election documents pertaining to the elections referred to in point 1;
 - 4) settling doubts regarding matters connected with the course and result of elections;
 - 5) participation in election meetings according to the competences delegated by the UEC's chair;
 - 6) requesting the Senate to declare elections void in the case of significant procedural irregularities.
2. The responsibilities of the FEC shall include, in particular:
 - 1) conducting elections for:
 - a) the Senate – with regard to the representatives referred to in § 25 section 1 points 2 and 3 of the Statute,
 - b) the College of Electors – with regard to the representatives referred to in § 43 points 2 and 3 of the Statute,
 - c) faculty councils – with regard to the representatives referred to in § 74 section 2 points 5 and 7 of the Statute and, in the case referred to in § 22a of the Ordinance, with regard to the representatives referred to in § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute,

- d) candidate or candidates for dean, recommended to the Rector by the faculty council;
- 2) supervision of election documents pertaining to the elections referred to in point 1;

Chapter 7a. Elections for faculty councils

§ 22a. Adopting a resolution on elections for faculty council representatives from amongst academic teachers employed at the faculty in the position of professor or associate professor or holding the academic degree of doctor with habilitation

Should the total number of persons referred to in § 74 section 2 points 1-3 of the Statute as well as of the academic teachers referred to in § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute exceed 45, the faculty electoral council shall, prior to adopting the resolution referred to in § 74 section 4 of the Statute, convene an election meeting of the academic teachers referred to in § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute, in order to adopt a resolution on holding elections of representatives of this group of academic teachers in the faculty council. The resolution shall be adopted with a 2/3 majority of votes. Should the resolution fail to receive the required 2/3 majority of votes, the composition of the faculty council shall include all the academic teachers referred to in § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute.

§ 22b. The FEC adopting a resolution on determining the number of representatives of particular groups in the faculty council and the deadline for proposing candidates for the faculty council

The resolution referred to in § 74 section 4 of the Statute shall be adopted by the faculty electoral committee after voting has been held by the election meeting of the academic teachers referred to in § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute regarding the resolution referred to in § 22a of the Ordinance. In the resolution referred to in § 74 section 4 of the Statute, the FEC shall specify the deadline for proposing candidates for the faculty council.

§ 22c. Elections for representatives of academic teachers employed at the faculty in the position of professor or associate professor or holding the academic degree of doctor with habilitation

Should an election meeting of the academic teachers referred to § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute adopt the resolution referred to in § 22a of the Ordinance, elections for representatives of this group of academic teachers in the faculty council shall be held in order to fill the number of mandates between 45 and the total number of persons referred to in § 74 section 2 points 1-3 of the Statute.

§ 22d. Proposing candidates for members of the faculty council equal to or fewer than the number of mandates to be filled

1. Should the number of candidates for membership of the faculty council, proposed from amongst a given group of academic teachers or a group of employees of the faculty who are not academic teachers within the deadline for proposing candidates for faculty council members, specified by the faculty electoral committee in the resolution referred to in § 74 section 4 of the Statute, be equal to the number of mandates to be filled, no elections shall be held in the group in question, with all the candidates proposed becoming representatives of the group in the faculty council.
2. Should the number of candidates for members of the faculty council, proposed from amongst a given group of academic teachers or a group of employees of the faculty who are not academic teachers within the deadline for proposing candidates for faculty council members, specified by the faculty electoral committee in the resolution referred to in § 74 section 4 of the Statute, be lower than the number of mandates to be filled, no elections shall be held in the group in question, with all the candidates proposed becoming representatives of the group in the faculty council. Representatives of a given group of academic teachers or a group of employees of the faculty who are not academic teachers, corresponding in number to the remaining vacant mandates, shall be appointed by the dean.

§ 22e. The immutability of rules governing the composition of the faculty council during its term in office

During the faculty council's term in office, should the total number of persons referred to in § 74 section 2 points 1-3 of the Statute and the academic teachers referred to in § 74 section 2 point 4 of the Statute exceed 45, the elections referred to in § 22c of the Ordinance shall not be held during this term in office, with the composition of the faculty council continuing to function as hitherto for the remainder of the term in office.

Chapter 8. Granting recommendation to a candidate or candidates for dean

§ 23. Candidates for dean

1. A candidate or candidates for dean shall be recommended to the Rector by the faculty council with an absolute majority of votes and with a quorum of at least one half of the number of the faculty council members.⁸⁾
2. The faculty electoral committee shall set a deadline for proposing candidates for dean.
3. Any member of the faculty council can propose a candidate for dean. The proposal shall require the candidate's written consent. A candidate shall be proposed to the FEC. After the deadline for proposing candidates has passed, the FEC shall post information on the candidates proposed on the faculty website.
5. Candidates for dean may present their programmes no later than two days prior to the faculty council session regarding the elections of a candidate or candidates for dean.
6. Candidates' programmes may be posted on the faculty website or presented in other forms.
7. Candidates may present their programmes during assemblies which may be attended by all members of the faculty's academic community. Assemblies may also be held by means of electronic communication.

§ 24. Granting recommendation to a candidate or candidates for dean

1. The chair of the FEC shall determine the agenda of the faculty council session regarding the elections of a candidate or candidates for dean as well as convene and open the session. The faculty council session shall be chaired by the most senior member of the faculty council in terms of age.
2. The mandate of a faculty council member seeking recommendation of the council as a candidate for dean shall be suspended for the period in which he or she stands as a candidate and until the council has voted for a candidate or candidates for dean.
3. The faculty council shall determine the number of the candidates for dean whom it intends to recommend to the Rector. Should the council fail to determine the number of the candidates for dean whom it intends to recommend to the Rector, it shall be assumed that the faculty council has granted recommendation to every candidate who has received support with an absolute majority of votes.
4. The faculty council shall present to the Rector the candidate or candidates for dean who have received the council's recommendation.
5. Should the Rector refuse to accept the candidate or candidates for dean recommended by the faculty council, the procedure of granting recommendation to a candidate or candidates for dean, specified in § 23 and § 24 of the Ordinance, shall be repeated.
